IN SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA

Limited Collection of Ascent at The Phoenician® Golf Villas Available Now

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA – October 30, 2020 – Replay Destinations (‘Replay’) announced today that it has acquired real estate development parcels at The Phoenician®, a Luxury Collection Resort in Scottsdale, Arizona. The planned private residential community will sit at the foot of Camelback Mountain, overlooking the Phoenician® Golf Club. Known as Ascent at The Phoenician®, the project will become a true legacy property in one of Arizona’s most celebrated locations. Replay has acquired the development parcels from affiliates of Host Hotels & Resorts, Inc. (‘Host’), owner of The Phoenician®, a Luxury Collection Resort, which is consistently recognized as one of the world’s finest luxury resort destinations.

“Designed as a luxurious desert sanctuary in the heart of Scottsdale, Ascent at The Phoenician® will offer buyers the rare opportunity to live at one of the region’s most prestigious addresses. At this time when home is more important than ever, we have incorporated contemporary design, spacious indoor/outdoor living spaces, and private entrances in a world-class location to enjoy the beautiful desert,” said Gary Raymond, Managing Director, Replay Destinations.

Ascent at The Phoenician® will consist of approximately 195 properties, including condominiums at the base of Camelback Mountain and Ascent Golf Villas along the first fairway of the Phoenician® Golf Club. A planned private pool and fitness amenity tucked up against Camelback Mountain will be an intimate gathering place for wellness, socializing and relaxation. With views overlooking the new Phoenician® Golf Club and Camelback Mountain along with the city lights of Scottsdale, home designs will feature contemporary architecture integrating warm, natural materials, expansive windows and large outdoor living areas. Residents will also have a limited opportunity to join a Phoenician® Amenity Access Program that provides Ascent real estate owners with access to resort amenities, including the pools and fitness facility, as well as preferred pricing for golf, spa, food and beverage, and other services.

Reservations are now being accepted for the first release of luxury homes within the Ascent community – a limited collection of 30 golf villa homes situated on the first fairway of the new Phoenician® Golf Club and adjacent to the golf clubhouse and new Phoenician® Tavern Restaurant. Ranging from two bedrooms to three bedroom and den/office plans, the homes will offer spacious indoor living transitioning to generous outdoor living. Priced from $1,785,000, the Ascent Golf Villas offer private two-car garages with additional storage. Generous outdoor living areas include spectacular upper level patio decks opening to views of the golf course and Camelback Mountain. Priority reservations are being accepted via a formal Reservation Agreement along with a $5,000 refundable deposit. Reservation holders will have the ability to select a home at pre-construction pricing with final purchase contracts being written later this fall.

“Host Hotels and Resorts is thrilled that Replay Destinations is acquiring these real estate development parcels at The Phoenician®, a Luxury Collection Resort for this legacy project,” said Linda Laniado, Vice President of Investments at Host. “Replay is known internationally for creating one-of-a-kind projects in storied resort locations across the globe.
